Tom Schutyser, Al Resafa I, View caravanseraï, Syria
35mm B/W film, giclée prints on Hahnemühle Fine Art Pearl archival paper, 20" x 30"

Last year Tom concluded his first stage of the caravanseraï project. His first series of photos from Northern Iran, resulted in a collaboration with artist Gilles Neuray, a series of exhibitions at galleries in Portland, USA and a first solo exhibition in Paris, France in collaboration with l'Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture (ENSA) of Paris-Val de Seine (www.consideratcaravanseraï.net).

Recently he returned from another four months road trip thru Lebanon, Syria, and Jordan, which resulted in a second visual documentary on the caravanseraï. In this group show is a first showing of his new series with a photo selection of a pre-Muslim caravanseraï on the Byzantian site of Al Resafa in Syria. For the full series Tom is preparing an exhibition in galleries in Beirut, Lebanon and Portland, USA and he is preparing a book that will combine photography material with text materials and interviews with international affairs experts on the Middle East
